On April 10, 2006, the Defendants filed a Motion To Dismiss, Or, In The Alternative, To Transfer Venue. In response, the United States District Court for the District of Columbia entered the equivalent of a Roseboro Notice on April 11, 2006.

By Order entered March 6, 2007, the United States District Court for the District of Columbia denied the Defendants' Motion To Dismiss under Rule 12(b)(3) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure for improper venue and transferred the above-styled civil action to the United States District Court for the Southern District of Illinois<sup>1</sup>.

Following the transfer of the above-styled civil action to the United States District Court for the Southern District of Illinois, the parties were Ordered to show cause why said action should not be transferred to either the United States District Court for the Northern District of Georgia or the United States District Court for the Northern District of West Virginia. The parties were also directed to indicate which of those two districts would provide the more appropriate venue. By Order entered September 18, 2007, the United States District Court for the Southern District of Illinois transferred the above-styled civil action to this Court.

Upon transfer to this Court, the above-styled civil action was referred to United States Magistrate Judge James E. Seibert in accordance with Rule 83.02 of the Local Rules of Prisoner Litigation Procedure and 28 U.S.C. §§ 1915(e)(2) and 1915(A).

The Plaintiff's Objection To The Magistrate Judge Report And Recommendation was filed on July 13, 2009.

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(c), this Court is required to make a de novo review of those portions of the Magistrate Judge's findings to which objection is made. The Court is not, however, required to review, under a de novo or any other standard, the factual or legal conclusions of the Magistrate Judge as to those portions of the findings or recommendation to which no objections are made. Thomas v. Arn, 474 U.S. 140, 150 (1985).

As previously noted, on July 13, 2009, the Plaintiff filed his Objection To The Magistrate Judge Report And Recommendation. The Court has conducted a de novo review only as to the portions of the Report and Recommendation to which the Plaintiff objected. The Court finds that the issues raised by the Plaintiff in his Objection To The Magistrate Judge Report And Recommendation were thoroughly considered by Magistrate Judge Seibert in said Report And Recommendation. The Court is of the opinion that Magistrate Judge Seibert's Report and Recommendation accurately reflects the law applicable to the facts and circumstances before the Court in the above-styled action. Accordingly, it is

Seibert on July 1, 2009 (Docket No. 84), be, and the same is hereby, ACCEPTED in whole, and the Court hereby incorporates the findings of fact and conclusions of law made by Magistrate Judge Seibert in said Report And Recommendation. 4. the Plaintiff's Federal Tort Claims Act claim be, and the same is hereby, DISMISSED without prejudice for failure to comply with W. V.a Code § 55-7B-6;
5. The Plaintiff's attempted counterclaim and third-party claims against R. McFadden; T.A. Banks; Health Service Administrator Deveza; B. Barton, M.D.; and David Robertson be, and the same are hereby, DISMISSED with prejudice; and
